Re: Formal Complaint Against Common Sense Voters, SF 2010,
Vote for Mark Farrell for District 2 Supervisor; ID #1332919

Dear Mr. Porter:

This firm represents Janet Reilly for District 2 Supervisor 2010 (ID #1319573). Ms. Reilly is running for Board of Supervisors in San Francisco. We are writing to lodge a formal complaint against the committee called “Common Sense Voters, SF 2010, Vote for Mark Farrell for District 2 Supervisor,” (the Committee”), which is an independent expenditure committee running a massive campaign against Ms. Reilly. The Committee’s ads violate several Political Reform Act provisions, including the requirement that major donors be listed on advertisements.

Just last week, the FPPC took immediate action against Yes on Prop B Pension & Benefits Reform Committee for similar violations and demanded that the committee stop airing ads that failed to inform voters who were behind those ads. We respectfully request that the FPPC take similarly swift action against the Committee by opening an investigation and compelling immediate compliance with the law. This letter is sent as a formal complaint pursuant to Government Code section 83115.

Here are the pertinent facts:

1. The Committee filed an initial Form 410 Statement of Organization with the San Francisco Ethics Commission on October 13, 2010. The Committee described itself as a “primarily formed committee” in support of Mark Farrell for District 2 Supervisor. The Form 410 showed Jack Helfand as the only other principal officer of the committee who is primarily responsible for approving the Committee’s political activity. (Attached as Exhibit A.)

2. The Committee filed a Form 460 for the period October 1, 2010, through October 16, 2010, with the San Francisco Ethics Commission that was dated October 21, 2010. The Form 460 disclosed $30,500 in contributions from the different contributors in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $15,000. (Attached as Exhibit B.)

3. The Committee filed a Form 496 on October 20, 2010, disclosing that expenditures for mailers and a website “in opposition to Janet Reilly for Supervisor” were made on October 19, 2010. The Form also disclosed substantial receipts in the form of contributions by Thomas J. Coates totaling $100,000 on October 18, 2010, and by Diane B. Wilsey in the amount of $50,000 also on October 18, 2010. (Attached as Exhibit C.)

4. The Committee filed a Form 496 on October 26, 2010, disclosing an independent expenditure of $35,000 for a doorhanger “in support of Mark Farrell for Supervisor.” The Form also disclosed receipt of an additional contribution of $41,000 from Thomas J. Coates on October 25, 2010. (Attached as Exhibit D.)

5. The Committee distributed the “Man Behind the Curtain” mass mailing on or about October 22, 2010 and distributed the “Prop H” mass mailing on or about October 25, 2010. These mailings mainly attacked Janet Reilly as a candidate for Supervisor and only nominally supported Mark Farrell by including a tagline supporting him in the name of the Committee shown on the mailing. (These are attached as Exhibit E.)

Based on these facts, it is apparent the Committee is likely violating provisions of the Political Reform Act.

First, the Committee failed to include its major donors in the name of the Committee. Government Code section 84506 requires a committee that makes independent expenditures supporting or opposing a candidate to include a disclosure statement in mass mailing advertisements of the name of the committee making the independent expenditures and the names of the persons from whom the committee has received its two highest cumulative contributions of $50,000 or more. The Committee received contributions of $100,000 on October 18 and $41,000 on October 25, 2010, from Thomas Coates. In addition, the Committee received a contribution of $50,000 from Diane B. Wilsey on October 18, 2010. A statement that “Major funding by [insert names of top two funders of $50,000 or more]” was required to be included on the mass mailings. The identification of the major donors is missing from both mass mailings. Failure to include the major funder information constitutes a violation of law.

Second, the Committee failed to include a reference to its opposition to Janet Reilly in the name of the Committee. FPPC regulation section 18402(c)(3) provides that a committee must include in its name the last name of each candidate that the committee supports or opposes, as shown on the Committee’s Form 410, and include in the Committee’s name the office sought, year of election, and whether the committee supports or opposes each candidate. The Form 410 fails to disclose the Committee’s opposition to Janet Reilly. The Committee’s Form 496 filed on October 20, 2010, included a description of mass mailings in opposition to Janet Reilly. The two mass mailings included herewith attack Janet Reilly and do not include any positive message in support of Mark Farrell other than a reference in the name of the committee. The Committee has failed to properly include in its name its opposition to Janet Reilly, which constitutes a violation of law.

In sum, the Committee is hiding the major funders of these advertisements. This is a clear violation of the law, just like the Prop B case, and requires a similarly rapid response on the part of the FPPC in order to stop a flagrant example of voter deception. Given the immediacy of the election and the harm being done to San Francisco voters, we request that the FPPC immediately (1) demand that the Committee stop distributing ads that violate the disclosure laws and (2) fine the Committee.

I certify under penalty of perjury that, to the best of my knowledge, the information set forth in this complaint is true and complete.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

JANET REILLY WANTS YOU TO PAY NO ATTENTION TO THAT MAN BEHIND THE CURTAIN
Who's the wizard behind Janet Reilly's agenda?

It's none other than Chris Daly.

On November 2, Vote NO on Janet Reilly.
Janet Reilly's support of Chris Daly has led to new taxes and higher fees.

Janet and her family have contributed thousands of dollars to Chris Daly, Aaron Peskin and other members of the Board of Supervisors who share their radical views. It's obvious where she stands.

And Reilly supported the $4 billion gamble for public power.

Reilly and her family were the largest single contributors to support public power in San Francisco. Proposition H was a $4 billion gamble that could have risked public safety and education. District 2 overwhelmingly rejected the measure, but Reilly supported it to the tune of $100,000.

Janet Reilly and Chris Daly
Lead San Francisco down a yellow brick road to disaster.
72% OF DISTRICT 2 VOTED DOWN PROPOSITION H - A PUBLIC UTILITIES TAKEOVER.

Janet Reilly had her own ideas.
Proposition H would have cost voters $4 billion.

District 2 voted it down by 72%.

JANET REILLY SUPPORTED IT.

Proposition H would have cost us billions in revenue bonds and massive rate increases.

There's a reason we overwhelmingly voted down Proposition H: it would have given the Board of Supervisors the power to take over utilities without voter approval, costing us almost $4 billion in taxes and fees in the process.

It could have resulted in cuts to critical services like public safety, small business development and education funding.

If Proposition H had passed, it could have resulted in disastrous cuts to the public services we need and deserve, including public safety and education funding.

Janet Reilly and her family were the biggest single contributors to the Proposition H campaign.

Despite all of the possible negative repercussions for our community, Janet Reilly and her family donated thousands of dollars to support the passing of Proposition H.

NO ON JANET REILLY

No regard for what matters to District 2.
